Course TWO

For those still hungry, we suggest the following time-tested favourites...

DON'T DREAM IT'S OVER One of the best dishes ever created...hauntingly beautiful New Zealander fare	1986
SOMETHING SO STRONG This dish is light and fun - best enjoyed with a Pinot Noir	1987
I GOT YOU Rounding out the New Zealander repertoire, this quirky favourite rocks!	1980
I'M A BELIEVER This transports us to a simpler time and place – made with genuine Monkee meat	1966
SWEET CAROLINE From the same Chef, this dish offers up ironic overtones and subtle mockery	1968
DOMINO Irish-infused pop is totally infectious – try this with a chilled pint of Guinness	1968
MY SHARONA Both sweet and sour, this upbeat confection is beloved	1979
SOUL MAN Deep south goodness is always in fashion	1966
SULTANS OF SWING This features a tour de force of tasteful guitar notes – a glass of Cognac recommended!	1979
DAY TRIPPER From this humble riff, a thousand rock recipes were created!	1966
RIDERS ON THE STORM Who can resist the poetic flavours and trance-like textures?	1970
SHE'S NOT THERE A British variation of a jazzier pop piece - Zombie cocktail recommended	1965
BLISTER IN THE SUN Quirky and fun like a burger with Roquefort melted on it!	1990
LOSING MY RELIGION A favourite that crossed from Alt-Cooking to Mainstream – try it with Bourbon on the rocks	1988
I SAW HER STANDING THERE An all out favourite from the north of England: your taste buds will dance	1964
I FEEL GOOD Food that is good for the soul (and muscles)	1966
CAN'T EXPLAIN A raucous full-flavoured dish highlighted by notes of sourness and jangle	1967
WON'T GET FOOLED AGAIN Who doesn't enjoy this classic dish? Bring a large appetite!	1969
DESSERT?? Perhaps a little Modern English sweet to close off the evening?	Market price
